

TANZANIA

Tanzania: Governor Penina (striped dress) with some of the Maasai ladies who have recently learned TM.

Tanzania: Classroom, under the tree, in Maasai village, for teaching the three days of checking with TM instruction.

Tanzania: Large group of Maasai who have recently learned the TM program, with TM Governor Penina, on the right.

Tanzania: Governor Penina (left) with a group of meditators at Moshono, Tanzania on a TM checking day.

Tanzania: Maasai group from Arash, Tanzania, an instrumental group in starting the new Consciousness-Based Nursery and Primary School in Arash. All in the photo are practicing the TM program.

Tanzania (Arusha): Project leaders in Maasai villages in North Tanzania. Four TM Governors in photo. Patrick (from Nairobi), left side; Poline, third from left; Jim Schaefer, President - PWP, right side; and Penina, second from right.

Tanzania: TM Governor, Poline (blue dress) with Maasai ladies in a north Tanzannia Maasai village where about 1000 have learned the TM program over the past year. Most learning have been women. Poline and Penina continue to teach and check the new meditators in these villages. Success thus far strongly suggest that thousands of Maasai will be willing to learn the TM and TM Sidhi Program.

Tanzania: TM Governor, Penina (red head scarf) with women who are learning TM in a North Tanzania Maasai village. Penina is a Maasai lady and speaks their local language. She is our only Maasai speaking active TM instructor in Africa. Penina and Poline teach together in Maasai villages. Penina and Poline are actively teaching TM to ladies, mostly in 7 Maasai villages.

Tanzania: New TM meditators in a Maasai village. Often the three days of checking with TM instruction are conducted under trees in the villages.

UGANDA

Uganda: Jan, 2018. Painting and preparing the new primary Kasese School, which is located near the border with the D.R. Congo. The school opened at the end of Jan, 2018. The school operation is owned by Maharishi Education Development Ltd, Kampala, Uganda.

Uganda: Kasese School, just before school started in late January, 2018.

Uganda: Kasese School, Feb, 2018. They quickly enrolled 100 children in this new school. This is the younger part of the student group.

Uganda: Kasese School. Snack time for the students.

Uganda: Kasese School. Students group photo.

Uganda: The students at Kasese School in their new school uniforms.

Uganda: At the Kasese School, TM Governor and Principal of the school, Bamande, showing photo of the new desk for the school.

Uganda: At the Kasese School, TM Governor and Principal of the school, Bamande, showing a photo of the new playground equipment for the students at the new school. It should be noted, Bamande has instructed all faculty, staff, and most of the students at the school in the TM program. He has also taught about 30 adult parents from the neighborhood the TM program. Bamande will be teaching all the students and many many more adults in the Kasese community.

Uganda: Good Luck School, group meditation. Good Luck School has all students, faculty, staff and about 130 adult parents around the school practicing the TM program. The students and adults do group meditations at the school every day.

Uganda: Good Luck School, group meditation. There are now 320 students, 17 faculty, and 183 adult parents near to the school who collectively practice the TM program. Because some meditating community members of the Good Luck Primary and the Brain Trust Secondary School live up to 5 km from the school, Tobias has organized them into local groups for meditation.

Uganda: Good Luck School. TM Governor, Tobius, leading a group of young students with their TM Walking Technique.

Uganda: In Kampala at the Good Luck School. TM Governor, Tobius (white shirt) with the meditating faculty of Good Luck School.

Uganda: In Kampala at the Good Luck School. TM Governor, Tobius (blue shirt), with the meditating students.

Uganda: In Kampala, the Brain Trust Academy, TM Governor, Tobius, leading a group of students in group meditation. Brain Trust Academy has all students, faculty, and staff practicing the TM program. Tobius visits them weekly for group checking sessions. The Brain Trust and Congolese Schools have Secondary students who may form Sidha groups in time.

Uganda: In Kampala, at the Congolese Refugee Association and Secondary School. All faculty, students and staff at this school are practising the TM program. The administrators of the Association are all practicing the TM program. Hundreds of Congolese refugees, living in Kampala, Uganda have now learned the TM program. Bulongo, President of the Association, is a TM Sidha (plaid shirt). TM Governor, Lukwago (red shirt) and TM Governor, Nancy (blue dress) are the two principal TM Govs working with the Congolese refugees in Kampala, along with the TM National Director, John Bukenya. Nancy is a Congolese refugee herself.

Uganda: Congolese refugees in Kampala. Most in the photo are practicing the TM program.

Uganda: In Kampala, at the EDAPO Orphanage and Primary School, groundbreaking ceremony for the campus of the primary school, 2017. Mark Ugabe (green shirt), long time TM meditator and TM Sidha in Kampala is the EDAPO Director.

EDAPO children started new life in dormitories.
Photo 2018

EDAPO celebrating establishment and utilization of three new dormitories on the EDAPO campus. EDAPO is an orphanage and primary school that gets support from PWP. They have about 360 students in the school and all students, faculty, staff and administration practice the TM program, plus there are 200 plus TM Sidhas in the whole EDAPO organization.

Raja Graham with a group of EDAPO secondary school Sidhas and a teacher at the primary school.

Uganda: The TM Governors (most of those in the photo) and a few local Sidhas, in a group photo at the TM Center of Kampala, Uganda with Raja Graham and Leanne Defritas. 2017 photo.

North Uganda: TM Governor Ojimi (second from left), with a group of new meditators in the northern area of Uganda, which area has a history of PTSD related issues which have resulted from violence in the area. This project started in late 2017. The TM program has already been shown, through PTSD related testing, to be very helpful in reducing PTSD symptoms among the new meditators.

Kenya: Liberty School, at the beginning of 2018, during Christmas/New Years break, new corrugated metal tin sheets were added to classrooms of this primary school in Nandi Hills, Kenya. There are about 130 children in the school. All students, faculty and administration practice the TM program. In addition, about 600 adults in the community have been taught the TM program.

Kenya: Liberty School, building a new computer lab at Liberty School. The development of modest levels of computer skills is very important in these schools.

Kenya: Group meditation time in a classroom of Global One Primary School in Kibera, a low income district of Nairobi. TM Governor Patrick is leading the mediation (green jacket). Global One is a school of about 300 kids, all practicing the TM program.

Kenya, Nakuru: SCANN project. This is TM Governor Simon with the boys of SCANN, a home for street boys. PTSD was a problem for these young people. All the boys have been taught the TM program. The Director, faculty and staff and all the boys are regularly practicing the TM program and Simon visits monthly to provide checking. The boys are doing really well with their TM program.

Kenya: PWP supports teaching TM to South Sudanese refugees who are located in Nakuru, Kenya. Simon Mwangi is the TM Governor teaching the refugees.

About 100 South Sudanese refugees have learned the TM program to date.

Kenya, Nairobi: East Africa Governor Conference, April 2017, representing Kenya, Tanzania, Uganda, D.R. Congo and Zambia. Conference Leader was Kenya TM National Director, Governor Solomon (red shirt in front).

Kenya, Nairobi: Group meditation in Global One School.

ZAMBIA

Zambia, Lusaka: TM Governor Harry, Founder and Principal of the Maharishi Model School, giving a lesson in their new school Computer Lab.

Zambia, Lusaka: PWP helped purchase 28 computers for the new Computer Lab at the Maharishi Model School, located in the low income district of Lusaka.